Efforts of Franklin Park Police and Cook County Sheriff Result in Indictment in Money Laundering and Illegal Possession of Gaming Machines

August 9, 2018 -- What began as a narcotic investigation by the Franklin Park Police, turned into a joint operation by the Franklin Park Police and the Cook County Sheriffs Police, into allegations of money laundering and operating illegal gambling machines from a business in Chicago.

During the investigation both agencies executed over 30 search warrants and over 30 subpoenas for documents and information connected to this investigation.

On December 8, 2015 the Franklin Park Police and the Cook County Sheriffs Police executed search warrants at the residence of Anwar Haddadin 4600 Raymond Drive in Brookfield and his business located in the 7100 block of W Grand Ave. in Chicago.

On July 13, 2018 the target of this investigation Anwar Haddadin was indicted for Money Laundering and Illegal Possession of Gaming Machines.

The investigation resulted in the recovery over $400,000 in USC, over $80,000 in jewelry and (6) illegal gaming machines from these illegal activities.
