

Cook County Multi-Jurisdictional Hazard Mitigation Plan Public Meetings

Public Comment Period Open on Draft Hazard Mitigation Plan

All residents of Cook County are invited to attend an upcoming meeting to learn about the draft Cook County Hazard Mitigation Plan. A computer workstation will be available to show you which natural hazards have the potential to affect your property. You can also view maps of Cook County depicting the location and extent of the natural hazards.

Photo courtesy of Brookfield resident

Provide Your Input!

The draft hazard mitigation plan is available for public review and comment on the project website. Residents can read the chapter prepared by their community and provide input on the identified mitigation actions, as well as other information to be found in the draft plan.

MEETING DATES AND LOCATIONS

All Meetings from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Brief Presentation at 6:45 p.m.

May 27, 2014

City of Berwyn
Berwyn Police Department
6401 West 31st Street, Berwyn

May 28, 2014

Village of Orland Park
Orland Fire Protection District
9790 West 151st Street, Orland Park

May 29, 2014

Village of Glenview
Glenview Police Department
2500 East Lake Avenue, Glenview

Take our public information survey!

www.surveymonkey.com/s/CookCountyHazMit

Or use the camera on your phone or tablet
to scan the code.

For more information visit our website:

www.cookcountyhomeslandsecurity.org/hazard-mitigation-plan