

From Pod to Frost

Seed Collecting, Sowing & Growing for Spring

Saturday October 10th
11AM- 1PM

Winter sowing is an economical and low-maintenance way to germinate native plants in the middle of winter for the garden. With just a few materials that you can find around your house, it's a fun and easy activity for all ages.

Join us at the
Franklin Park Public Library
10311 Grand Ave
Franklin Park, IL 60131

Materials provided by the Tree Preservation Commission & Bee Committee